

Heritage Festival Quilt Show at the Museum

Heritage Festival Quilt Show at the Museum

October 7th, 2023

All quilters are invited to bring your quilts to the Museum on Thursday October 5th between 1:30 and 6:00 pm. Ellen Perry and Patricia Campbell will be at the Museum to accept entries. Quilts will be judged, ribbons placed on them and ready for viewing on Saturday during Museum Festival hours of 10 am until 4 pm. For additional information or questions, you may have about the quilt show and how to enter your quilts call Ellen Perry at (865)-992-4631, text her at (865) 230-4652 or you may contact Ellen by email at: jperry4631@comcast.net

You do not have to pre-register your entries, but if you would like to do this ahead of time, forms will be available at the Museum and may be picked up there.

Forms may be found on the Heritage Festival website. They may be emailed, brought to the museum, or mailed to Ellen Perry, 126 Firebird Lane, Maynardville, TN 37807.

This year's Heritage Festival Theme is "Going to Grandma's." We will display aprons and bonnets (old or new) on the upper floor of the Museum where the quilts are displayed. If you have aprons or bonnets you wish to display, you may bring them when you bring your quilts and pick them up when you pick up your quilts.

Thank you to all our quilt participants who bring quilts each year and make the beautiful display at the Museum one of the most exciting events at the Heritage Festival.

The Museum is located at 3824 Maynardville Highway, Maynardville, TN.
